

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

7-20-1976

Reservations still open at University for July 30-Aug. 1 Alumni College

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations, "Reservations still open at University for July 30-Aug. 1 Alumni College" (1976). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 27443. <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/27443>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

Information Services • University of Montana • Missoula, Montana 59801 • (406) 243-2522

IMMEDIATELY

livers/ch/rb 7-20-76
state + cs

RESERVATIONS STILL OPEN AT UNIVERSITY
FOR JULY 30-AUG. 1 ALUMNI COLLEGE

MISSOULA--

Reservations are being accepted from University of Montana alumni and their spouses, parents of UM students and the general public who wish to participate in the fourth annual UM Alumni College seminar July 30-Aug. 1. The seminar will be held at the Lubrecht Forestry Camp, 30 miles northeast of Missoula.

The three-day program opens at 10 a.m. Friday, July 30, and continues until 2 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 1.

Deanna Sheriff, Alumni College director, said the cost of the three-day program is $50 per person, which includes tuition, books, board, room and recreation.

Theme of the 1976 UM Alumni College is "Where Do We Go From Here?" Presentations and discussions will include such subjects as humanistic behaviorism, the feminist movement, the devaluation of language, resource conservation and economic alternatives for the future. Books to be studied are: "Small is Beautiful," "Watership Down" and "What Thou Lovest Well, Remains American."

The culmination of the college will be a panel discussion on Sunday, Aug. 1, by various alumni. Dorothy Rochon Powers, award-winning editorial and feature writer for the Spokesman-Review in Spokane, Wash., and a 1943 UM graduate, will moderate the panel. The panel will tie together major points of the discussion sessions.

Panelists will include Carol Ferguson, Clancy, class of '62, a research specialist for the Montana Commission on Local Government; Merrill Kovatch, Conrad, class of '61, assistant vice president of the Farmer's State Bank of Conrad; Mary Maclay, class of '51, a rancher near Florence, and Ward Shanahan, Helena, class of '53, a partner in the law firm of Gough, Booth, Shanahan and Johnson.

Interested persons may preregister for the Alumni College Seminar by writing Sheriff at the Alumni Center, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801, or by phoning 243-5211.

##